

Ethambutol

Possible Side Effects:

- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Hands and legs with numb, tingling sensation or pain

Report if you have a history of liver or kidney problems

Notify the Nurse IMMEDIATELY if you have vision changes or have difficulty in determining colors

Isoniazid

Possible Side Effects

- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Constipation
- Yellowing of eyes or skin
- Vision changes
- Skin rash
- Loss of appetite
- Fever/Chills
- Dark urine (tea/cola colored)
- Hands and legs with numb, tingling sensation or pain

Report if you take medication for seizures or if you have a history of seizures

* It is best to avoid alcohol (beer, wine, and whiskey, etc) while taking this medication.

* Take the vitamin B-6 given to you with this medication.

* If flushing occurs, avoid eating foods such as aged cheeses and meats, soy sauce, soy bean including paste, Miso soup, Italian green beans (fava beans), snow peas or broad bean pods, sauerkraut, kimchee, concentrated yeast extracts (Marmite), wine, beer including alcohol-free beer.

Pyrazinamide

Possible Side Effects:

- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Skin rash
- Yellowing of eyes or skin
- Joint swelling, pain
- Fever
- Loss of appetite

Report if you have history of gout, diabetes (high blood sugar), or if you are pregnant

* Drink at least 8 cups (2 liters) of water every day.

Rifampin or Rifapentine

Possible Side Effects:

- Heart burn
- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Skin rash, itching
- Headache
- Yellowing of skin
- Dark color urine, light color stools
- Tears in eyes
- Drowsiness
- Fever
- Soreness of mouth and tongue

Report if you take medicines for asthma, seizure, HIV, diabetes; heart or high blood pressure medicines; take blood thinner medicine (Coumadin); take birth control pills, have Norplant, or receive Depo-Provera injections; take estrogen for hormonal replacement

* Body fluids (tears, sweat, and urine) will change to an orange color, this is expected and normal.

* Do not wear contact lens as they will stain

* Your skin may be more sensitive to the sun. Use sunscreen.

* Some birth control methods may not work as well when taking Rifampin. Use a back-up method, i.e. condoms.

Notify the Nurse IMMEDIATELY if you stop taking these medications for any reason OR If you have any side effects when taking these medications.

Health Department Contact Information: _____

If have received a copy of this form. I also have had all of my questions answered.

Patient signature _____ Date _____