Georgia’s Environmental Health Specialists:

Appreciation is also given to all Environmental Health staff throughout the state that has reviewed drafts of this manual and has submitted comments.

Special Recognition:

The Division of Public Health/Environmental Health Section would like to give special thanks for the Alexandria Health Department Environmental Health Division, Alexandria, Virginia, in allowing their work to be incorporated within this Manual. In addition, the Division would like to further recognize the editors of the 2005 Food Code City of Alexandria Pocket Guide for Food Operations. They are:

- Frank Dickman,
- Cecilia Escobar,
- Mike Kasnia REHS (MD), and
- Richard Michelback REHS, CFSP, Environmental Health Division, Alexandria Health Department, Alexandria, Virginia.

Also, the Division of Public Health would like to recognize Kimberly Livsey, Janice D. Buchanon and Van Harris for their work in the development of the Training CD, “Ethnic Foods Meeting the Challenge” of which is the source information for Section C – Specialty Foods in Part II of this Manual.

A very special thanks goes to Melinda Scarborough, former Program Director of the Food, Tourist, Swimming Pool, and Training Programs in the Environmental Health Section of the Division of Public Health, Georgia Department of Human Resources. Her hard work and extreme dedication to advancing food safety in Georgia prepared the way for the development of this Manual.
