

PERINATAL HIV PREVENTION

Expert HIV Advice for the Clinician

- Interpreting conventional and rapid HIV test results
- Disclosing test results
- Managing HIV in pregnancy
- Caring for the exposed infant
- Referring to care

Perinatal HIV Hotline

National Perinatal HIV Telephone Consultation and Referral Service

Expert • Confidential • Free

888-448-8765

24 hours a day • 7 days a week

Visit our website at www.nccc.ucsf.edu
for the Updated Compendium of State Testing Laws

HIV Warmline

National HIV Telephone Consultation Service

800-933-3413

Monday – Friday • 9am to 8pm EST

Post-Exposure Prophylaxis Hotline (PEpline)

888-448-4911 • 24/7

NATIONAL HIV/AIDS
CLINICIANS' CONSULTATION CENTER

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SAN FRANCISCO
AT SAN FRANCISCO GENERAL HOSPITAL

www.nccc.ucsf.edu

A component of the AIDS Education and Training Centers (AETC) Program funded by the Ryan White CARE Act of the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) HIV/AIDS Bureau in partnership with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)