

INCREASED RISK
of complications is likely if you smoke during PREGNANCY

HEALTH EFFECTS
to unborn babies...
increased RISK
BORN PRETERM
underweight damage to baby's LUNGS/BRAIN
SIDS
SUDDEN INFANT DEATH SYNDROME

MOMS WHO SMOKED
DURING PREGNANCY

49%

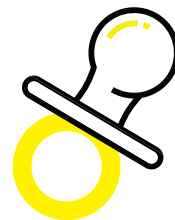

CHANCES OF HAVING AT LEAST 1
PREGNANCY RISK FACTOR

65%

Risk factors include...
hypertension
PRE-PREGNANCY / GESTATIONAL
DIABETES

3X

MOMS WHO DRANK ALCOHOL
during pregnancy were more likely to have smoked cigarettes

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

CALL THE Georgia Tobacco
Quit Line
1-877-270-STOP

CONTACT
Georgia Crisis & Access Line
1-800-715-4225
to find a provider in your area to assist with ALCOHOL CESSATION

Data Source: The Georgia Pregnancy Risk Assessment Monitoring System (PRAMS) provides information on women's attitudes, experiences, and behaviors before, during, and after the delivery of their live born infant. Georgia resident mothers were selected to participate each month using a stratified random sampling method.