

“Intervention in the Early Stages: An Overview of Pre-diabetes”

EMORY
UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

1 Hour Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

Event description: Healthcare providers and clinical support team professionals will receive the most up-to-date information related to advances in the screening, diagnosis and management of Pre-diabetes as well as coding information.

Invitees: Registered Nurses, Registered Dietitians, Licensed Practical Nurses, Medical Assistants, Medical/Nursing and Pharmacy Students, Community Healthcare Workers, Pharmacy Technicians, Employee Health Nurses, Health Promotion Professionals and other Public Health Professionals are encouraged to attend.

This free webinar features interactive case studies and participants are also encouraged to share their experiences.

Speaker: Sarah Piper, MPH, CDE
Diabetes Training and Technical Assistance Center (DTTAC)
Rollins School of Public Health, Emory University

Date: July 10th, 2014 (Thursday)
Time: 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm (Eastern Time)

To register, please click on <http://emory.adobeconnect.com/predm2/event/registration.html>

Contact person: Britt Rotberg, MS, RDN, LD, CDE (britt.rotberg@emory.edu) Phone: 404- 616 -7417
Early Registration is encouraged due to limited space.
Conference call number: 404-251-9903